

CITY GRID SQUADS IN FINAL TILTS

NORTH HIGH PIVOTMAN . . . Sophomore Al Bledsoe has added spirit and determination to Saxon Varsity line during season. Bledsoe, at 150 pounds, is light but a rugged performer. He will be in starting lineup tomorrow night when North High plays final game of term, a Pioneer League tussle with El Segundo.

North High Still After First Win

After tomorrow night's fray at El Segundo, the first football season in the short history of North High School will go into the books. But whether or not the record will contain that elusive single win will depend on whether the Saxons have absorbed enough lessons in their seven losses so far to pull a surprise.

The Saxons have a Pioneer League record of no wins in four games. Possibly their best showing was against defending champion Hawthorne, and then they were beaten, 33-6.

The El Segundans haven't done much better. After facing paties Harvard, Laguna Beach and St. Monica in three pre-league tussles, they haven't won either in Pioneer play.

Good In Spots
Coach Cliff Graybehl will send his youngsters out to give the El Segundo crew quite a battle. If they play for a sustained period as they have in spots this year, they may come out on top.

Graybehl has developed one outstanding offensive star in Fullback Ray Grieshaber. Handling the passing role in the single wing, Ray has exceeded all hopes by instituting a strong aerial game. He completed 13 tosses against Hawthorne, yet the Saxons are woefully weak on attack.

And, as a runner, Grieshaber has carried the brunt of the ground game, too. Graybehl just hasn't had the horses elsewhere in the backfield. Injuries clipped the expected performances of seatback Jimmy

Micro Cars Will Race On Local Track
Microdroids roll at a special 1/10-mile track at 190th St. and Hawthorne Blvd. this Sunday, a spokesman for the Southern California Micro Racing Association said this week.

John Hysinger and Clyde Gal, both veteran drivers and front leaders in SCMAA point standings at the local track, will lead the gang of race pilots.

Bleacher seats were erected this week at the track to enlarge accommodations for spectators. The track now can handle about 300 fans. Charge for admission is 50 cents for adults and 25 cents for children.

City Cage League Meet Set Tonight
All team managers of adult or young adult basketball squads desiring to enter a team in a Torrance Recreation Department-sponsored league are urged to attend an organizational meeting at 7:30 p.m. tonight at the Recreation office, 1347 El Prado.

Leagues for the 1955-56 cage season will be discussed at that time.

Rules and conditions of play will be approved and applications for team participation will be accepted during the meeting. Elmer "Red" Moon, city athletic director, announced.

Torrance Meets Mustang Eleven

Torrance's valiant Tartars close out their season tomorrow night when they entertain Bay League newcomer, Mira Costa, on the local field in an 8 p.m. go.

Off comparative scores, the Torrance-Mira Costa fray would almost be rated a toss-up if it weren't for more untimely injuries that hit the Tartar crew in last week's scoreless bruiser with Redondo.

Capable Quarterback Charley Valencia, who did a fine job during the year when he stepped in for injured Bill Meacham, is out for good with a broken wrist suffered in the Redondo game. Center Butch Hazel injured his knee and, although he came back to play a terrific game in the second half against the Seahawks, the hurt has lingered with him.

Then on Monday, Quarterback Mike Bertolo, who finally won the first string job when pressed into service at Meacham's loss, reported to Coaches Don Porter and Jack Miller with a bad leg. He should be able to start tomorrow night, however.

Altogether, the Tarts have suffered season losses to three top ends, Tony Ward, Tom Kulp and Dick Harlicker, and their two signal callers, Meacham and Valencia.

Mira Costa's single wingers, led by fine tailback Trent Castricone, have won three, lost four and tied one on the season. Their only league win was a 14-0 conquest of Leuzinger. Torrance slapped the same Olympian team, 21-7.

Mike McConnell, Denny Neff and Dave Heath spark the Mustangs' balanced line, which supports their recently-installed single wing. They started the season with the straight formation, but junked it in quest of more power on offensive thrusts.

Cogswell Coaches Micohi
Castricone is the big charger and has shown good ability to pass as well as Gallop with the ball. Don Gogswell is the Micohi coach.

Porter and Miller will go with their same starting eleven that has answered the whistle for most of the Tartar games. Fullback Skip Smith, who has been blasting aside all opposition this season on power thrusts and has been Torrance's most successful outside runner, too, will spearhead the offense.

He will be matched with Halfbacks Jerry Hughes and John Gomez, with Bertolo handling the quarterback post.

Up front, Hazel and two mighty guards, Stan Wilson and Dave Cony, will present the Mustangs with a tough middle line. End Tommy Brown, who has been watched like a hawk in the past two frays after busting open two tilts with his pass catching ability, is counted on to come through again.

Defensively, the Tartars will be paced by Cony, Hazel, Smith, Brown, Tom Ito, Mike Gonia, Harold Dis, Harold Mathews, and rugged Bill Montgomery. Montgomery is the defensive captain, while Smith is the team leader.

Saxonbees at El Segundo

North High's Bee eleven travels to El Segundo today for the final season game and last Pioneer League contest for both the Saxonbees and El Segundo.

Game time is 2:30 p.m. Winners in the league opener with Morningside, 18-7, then short-ender in three straight Pioneer frays, the Saxonbees are pointing for their opponents.

Coaches Del Nuzum and Herb Blue hope that their backfield combo of Ernie Thomsen, Chuck Richardson, Robert Romero and Dennis Berry will provide them with a win.

The NHS Bees have won one last six so far this season.
